

2004—2005 Theme Ideas

Gift giving to another person can be one that is bought or shared between two or more people.

At Christmas time, so many gifts are bought or shared that it takes the giver many hours of time and lists to complete the task at hand. Then again, a phone call or card will cover the rest of those on the lists to be remembered.

Throughout the year, holidays of every type and kind are marked with gifts! So much has been bought or made, wrapped and bagged that husbands often wonder if there is actually a month their wife doesn't have to find a present or two for their friends.

If a holiday is not being celebrated, then a baby shower, wedding or anniversary is commemorated with a token of our affection and praise. Yes, we do a lot of buying to cover our basis. I suppose it's like leaving a part of ones self with someone else.

This year is no different from the prior ones—yet it does express the Giving of—Gifts—of—Sisterhood. Although a simple theme can take a sister onto many ideas or not, she must see the meaning to truly get the idea first or shop around...

One, look at all the ways GIVING can be done.

Two, we already part take in the giving of GIFTS, so try creative ways to wrap the presents or bag those items—use note cards with written messages from you. Three, share the gifts of SISTERHOOD with each other and strangers. What we have gained as sisters needs to be given away and shared and not, contained within the chapter or council walls. It is indeed a blessing we stepped into this organization when we did and received those gifts—now share them.—Karen Ing

ENJOY A BIT OF COLOR, CHARACTER & CHARM WHILE INVITING NEW MEMBERS

FEBRUARY FROLIC—Dhahran, Saudi Arabia

February is a month of friendship and love especially for the Xi Epsilon Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Saudi Arabia Kingdom Council in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia.

The month had many pleasurable experiences for the Chapter. On the 9th the Chapter met in Catarina Beresky's house and had their monthly meeting. It concluded with a very scrumptious fajita dinner with all the trimmings and a very entertaining and informative presentation on reflexology by our hostess. It was very timely since it is an excellent month to think of caring for oneself and treating those ills that come with "maturity".

The Chapter members attended the Beta Sigma Phi Champagne & Pearls Sweetheart Ball in Bahrain on the 12th. The ladies dressed in beautiful gowns while the men wore elegant tuxes. Members from the nine chapters in the Kingdom Council attended the ball. Several of the chapters selected sweethearts and they were presented that evening. Sandi McNeil represented Alpha, Cindy Cavanaugh represented Gamma, Georgia Stockwell represented Xi Delta, Teresa Gail Roberts represented Xi Zeta, Jane Clark represented Preceptor Alpha, and our Dee Ann Raz represented our Xi Epsilon Chapter. The members had a fantastic evening which consisted of magnificent food and superb dancing. Our chapter was in charge of the guest favors. We selected beaded napkin holders in a variety of colors. Seven of the members were fortunate and carried away several fantastic door prizes and raffled items.

The following day, thanks to the arrangements of Dee Ann Raz, the members attended a champagne brunch with live entertainment at the Diplomat Hotel. The music provided an auspicious stage for magnificent eating and equally wonderful conversation.

The Chapter had a remarkable weekend and month of activities. It is currently planning a trip to Dubai for shopping, golfing, and general sight seeing. For fund raising, it is also planning a Bunko party with a sister chapter. Being a member of the Xi Epsilon Chapter and of Beta Sigma Phi is and continues to be a memorable experience.

TOP TEN MOTHER'S DAY SAYINGS

Why? Because I said so, that's why!
 I'm going to give you until the count of three!
 It's all fun and games until someone gets hurt
 I don't know is NOT an answer
 I would never have talked to my mother like that I'm not running a taxi service
 If everyone jumped off a cliff would you do it too?

 Someday your face will freeze like that
 It hurts me more than it hurts you
 I love you
 Money doesn't grow on trees
 Were you born in a barn? Shut the door
 Go ask your dad
 I'm not talking just to hear my own voice

 I hope someday when you have kids they're just like you, then you'll know ... whatever your name is

POEM ABOUT GRANDMA

I like to walk with Grandma,
 Her steps are short like mine.
 She never says, "Now hurry up!"
 She always takes her time.

I like to walk with Grandma.
 Her eyes see things like mine do.
 Wee pebbles bright, a funny cloud,
 Half hidden drop of dew.

Most people have to hurry
 They do not stop to see.
 I'm so glad that God made Grandma
 Unrushed and young like me.

Life, Learning and Friendship

Some of the pages will be redone over the summer months and sections added. One section that is in great need will be the Membership Items.

Plans are to move forms found in the area of membership to an open location, so sisters have more ease of access.

Remember: There are only 6 total annual E-Editions now. The next issue is due out June 30, 2004. The Beginning Day issue will go out the 1st part of August since so many changes happen during the summer months.

We are looking into a program that will defer the bots off the sister links pages, so the search engines won't list them.

We haven't had many donations of support for the Beta Journal server fees within the past 3 months. Please don't forget us! - Thank you, Karen Ing the flowers are asleep soft snowflakes have been falling spring seems so far away winter times in season

silver snowflakes dancing cold, harsh winds are blowing there's a peek-a-boo sun gray clouds are the reason most nuts have been buried autumn's apples are picked the harvest has been reaped nature's store is stocked-up home fires are crackling hearths glowing rosily logs pop and embers glow perfect for a hot cup fresh baking bread smells nice hot cider brings comfort
a kitchen on cold days with loved ones all around in snowstorms and blizzards so hard to imagine that springtime is so near it's just beneath the ground
