Game for BSP Sisters

Yellow Rose Story Game

Written by Rebecca Laverty

How to Play: Best to have each person bring a wrapped or bagged gift.

Best to play this game with 8 or more people forming 2 separate lines. Give each person a wrapped or bagged gift to hold. When the below words are spoken, pass the gift as directed to the other person on your right, or on your left, or across from you. At the end of the story, as the last directional word is given, the gift that you receive is the one you get to take home.

Directional Rules for this exchange:

- Wright or Right – pass your gift one person to the right
- Left or Lefty – pass your gift one person to the left
- Cross – pass your gift across (opposite side) to the person in front of you

Here's the Story to read out loud:

Mrs. Wright decided one day to go do some Red Hat shopping. She got in her car which was parked on the LEFT side of her house and before she LEFT decided to look in her glove compartment to see if she had LEFT her coupons in there to use when shopping. She rolled down the RIGHT hand side window and asked her neighbor, Mrs. Lefty, if she wanted to go shopping too. Mrs. Lefty said sure, I'll be RIGHT back with my purse and go with you.

As they drove down the street, Mrs. Lefty said, turn LEFT as there is a darling Red Hat Gift Shop called *The Right Touch that just opened and they will have a lot of RIGHT nice gifts. Mrs. Wright immediately turned LEFT and off they went. RIGHT beside the gift store stood a large Red Hat Lady marquee and standing RIGHT beside her was the cutest puppy dog wearing a purple jacket and a red hat which was RIGHT appropriate. Inside the store, from LEFT to RIGHT, the store had beautiful Red Hat wallpaper and on the LEFT featured Red Hat clothing - hats, dresses, shirts, and on the RIGHT featured all kinds of jewelry – rings, necklaces, bracelets, and earrings. Upstairs on the RIGHT featured garden accessories, yard flags, bird houses, chimes, and over to the LEFT featured a large shoe department – every kind of Red Hat shoe imaginable! After shopping, both Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Lefty LEFT after spending nearly all their money and drove aCROSS the street and then to the RIGHT side of the bank to get more money at the ATM machine so they could do more shopping. They both LEFT the bank and headed LEFT towards another gift shop that specialized in yellow rose gift items as Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Lefty were also BSP sisters and they wanted to buy some RIGHT nice gifts for their Secret Sisters. Besides, this store was located right aCROSS the street from the bank – how convenient!!! As they entered the store, they noticed on the RIGHT the prettiest yellow rose print dresses with matching yellow sandals and pretty yellow rose t-shirts in pretty pastel colors. On the LEFT side of the store were garden accessories, home interior gifts, soaps, candles, and of course chocolate truffles. Mrs. Wright suddenly looked at her watch and told Mrs. Lefty that the time was getting late and both had to get back home to fix supper for their husbands, Mr. Wright and Mr. Lefty, so they made their last minute purchases and headed back aCROSS the street to get in their car to head for home. As they turned LEFT into the driveway, they saw their husbands standing RIGHT beside the driveway asking them where they had been. They reached RIGHT behind the seats and pulled out all of their shopping bags -- and that is all that is LEFT of this story!

Panama Pete Hits the Road

First stop when disembarking to land was a colorful countryside trip through Texas.

Pete found napping to be his favorite way to travel the Texas roads while catching a bite to eat along the way.

It was not long before he found out he was to hunt eggs and not, rabbits in Louisiana along with sisters of which were not his relatives.

You could imagine Pete's surprise as he was rushed to Founder's Day and dressed up for dinner and awards of which the women seemed to really enjoy themselves with him.

No sooner did he take a liking to all the women in his steed, he had to be packed up for the Carolina's conven-

Thoughts on Our Theme

On the new theme, the best thing you can do with it to me is be sure you are thinking and acting young. Some times we get old before our time. Most of our members stay active and young thinking all their lives and they have inspired me from my earliest days with the organization, but sometimes we forget to have fun, to think young, to try new things, to continue to challenge ourselves and to play. If this might be you or your chapter, take this year to remember what it is to think and be young. And more than that, look at what it takes to keep your organization young. Look for opportunities to bring younger women into the organization. Pledge to have a citywide rush or to set up a new young Ritual of Jewels chapter. Young women really are looking for what we have, they may not do things exactly as you always have, but that doesn't mean that they don't want the deep bonds of sisterhood we have built over 75 years. They do.

Fast & Easy Ways & Means by Marilyn Ross

Take inventory: Approach the nearest large department store in your town and offer the chapter's services when inventory comes around.

Survey the Sports Scene: Inquire as to when the next sports tournament or event is scheduled. Sell soft drinks at the event. All you need is soda and lots of ice to make a nice profit.

Plant Auction: Start rooting and potting plants in the spring. By September, there will be plenty of plants to auction off. Schedule a plant auction in your community. Wear your sorority t-shirts, jackets, and post signs about Beta Sigma Phi. It helps get the word out! Ask nearby florists to donate plants too. Enjoy your 'green' success! ☺

Rose Candles: Glue organdy "petals" to brandy sniffers to make rose candle holders. They're easy to construct, and can be made in all sorts of colors easily and quickly.

Chili Supper: Host a chili supper before the annual high school homecoming football game. It gives citizens a place to gather for a few friendly hours and gives the chapter a chance to cook up a good profit!

Grocery Raffle: Many chapters have used this idea successfully. Raffle off the chance to go "wild" in a grocery store for one minute. Sell chances for $1 apiece, and you'll cart lots of money to your treasury!

Art Auction: Ask the artistic member(s) of the chapter to paint a picture then raffle it off.

"Forgot Your Sweetheart?" Auction: Invite your husbands to this auction. Wrap items elaborately, tempting and encouraging husbands to bid high for the contents.

LEGACY OF LOVE

*I've copied you, Mother
My words echo your voice
You're my shining example
The one of my choice*

*Not thinking about it
I've copied your style
The way that you walk
The way that you smile*

*You fashioned my dreams
You painted my hopes
I've learned to make knots
At the end of my ropes*

*We all learn to love,
But not from a friend
I learned your strength
And when I should bend*
